OUR STORY

SUHASINI SAMPATH & ANINDITA SAMPATH

Founders, Yogabar

Inspired by the goodness of Yoga, we started Yogabar in 2015 with the mission to change the world's eating habits. Call us stubborn, but we strongly believed that if we stayed true to our core principles, we could compete against an entire industry of global giants.

And so we did! We went from being a local company to a world-class brand that uses locally sourced whole grains, dried fruits, nuts, and seeds. We are a family of a few hundred people who spend months and months sweating over every little detail.

We like to make the kind of food that we would eat ourselves. So, when you pick up a Yogabar goodie, you can be sure that a great deal of thought went into it. Months of research. Hundreds of rejects. Then finally, one delicious & healthy product.

And that's the Yogabar promise!
